The firstfruits of hope
(Rom 8:19-25)

Reflection on the Readings

Green Team Scripture Reflections

In the face of mounting disasters, conflict, and changing weather, it's easy for many of us to lose hope and motivation to speak up for climate action, instead conceding to the apathy, doubt, and unease our warming planet causes. Climate anxiety affects many, but Isaiah 35 proclaims directly to our fear that God is here with us! "Be strong, fear not! Here is your God, he comes with vindication... Streams will burst forth in the desert, and rivers in the steppe. The burning sands will become pools, and the thirsty ground, springs of water."

If we allow ourselves to lean into our faith, we will be able to open our eyes, hear the cries of the earth, and sing our demands for climate action with strength, courage, and passion. Yet we must be discerning in our movement forward and, as James 2 shares, "show no partiality as you adhere to the faith". May our plans not be evil in design like James warns us, ensuring that we continue to hear the cries of the poor and not just hear those who are rich or those with power, our modern-day men "dressed in fine clothes and gold rings."

May the Lord open our mouths as he did for the man in Mark 7, so that we may speak up for our shared Earth and communities!

CSTM Continuing Education

From Friends to Allies: Forming Relationships Between People With and Without Disabilities

Friday, September 20, 12:00–1:00pm ET

Presenter: Thomas Murphy, PhD candidate, Boston College Clough School of Theology and Ministry and national staff member, L'Arche USA

Location: Heights Room, Corcoran Commons, Chestnut Hill Campus

Free of charge, Register at bit.ly/3B197LS

This lecture offers the opportunity for theological, spiritual, and practical reflection on forming friendships between people with and without disabilities. Thomas Murphy draws on wisdom and perspectives shared with him by friends with intellectual disabilities over twenty years of living and working together in the communities of L'Arche, an inclusive community where people with and without intellectual disabilities share life and build friendships. Be challenged to consider a more expansive potential for friendships and ways to foster deep belonging, resist ableism and form allies within your communities of faith.

Sponsored by CSTM and generously supported by the Pyne Endowment Trust in memory of Professor Margaret E. Pyne, a lifelong advocate for persons with disabilities.

Thank You!

Thank you again for your donations to our back-to-school items drive. Many, many families will have the supplies they will need to have a great beginning to the new school year.

Matrimonio y Algo Más

Matrimonio y algo más comenzó en Septiembre, 2023, en la Parroquia San Ignacio de Chestnut Hill, para matrimonios/parejas Hispanos. Hemos creado un espacio para las parejas que contribuye a la solidez de las familias. Ofrecemos charlas donde puedan compartir sus desafíos estando lejos de sus familias y amigos, educando a sus hijos en otra cultura y otro idioma.

El programa consta de una charla educativa, (15 min de Adoración u oración personal si fuera posible) y luego cena a la canasta (potluck) para que puedan conversar y compartir.

Estos encuentros se enfocan a crear comunidad y familia en el entorno parroquial. Ofrecemos babysitter para que los padres disfruten de la charla ya que algunos no tienen con quien dejar a los niños.

Los esperamos el sábado 5 de Octubre 6pm– 9:15pm.

Comenzamos a las 6:15 pm hasta las 7:50 pm con una conferencia, dando espacio para compartir y hacer preguntas. Luego, la cena compartida hasta las 9:15pm. Los esperamos con sus hijos y algo rico para cenar!
